

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOL. II.

PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY: TUESDAY, MAY 8, 1883.

NO. 125.

Lookout for pick-pockets, gamblers, sharpers and sneak-thieves.

Geo. Thomas was fined $10 and costs last Friday, for his assault on Ed. McKinney.

The estate of the late Thomas Bradley, of Lexington, is estimated at $800,000. He left a wife and four children.

The assets of Roy Cluke, who failed at Lexington a few weeks since, foot up $30,000. His liabilities are 26,000 to date.

We few Knott men will constitute the Pardon Board of Bourbon, it seems, and we are certain to Knott abuse the privilege.

The K. C. will run an excursion from Falmouth to Lexington, on Sunday next, on occasion of the opening of Woodland Park.

FOURTEEN million gallons of whisky in bond in the Lexington district, says the Transcript. This announces a safe supply for race week.

The Cincinnati Commonwealth says that Cincinnati will soon establish telephonic communication with Paris and Lexington, by way of Maysville.

THIRTY nine deaths from pistol shots in Whitley county in twelve months, and the fourth victim lies on his back. The work goes bravely on.

It's getting about the time of year for persons to commence lying about having early vegetables in their gardens and having eaten spring chickens.

The greatest circus of the season will exhibit here to-morrow. Everybody should turn out and see it. The street parade will be three miles in length.

REMEMBER this fact—Proctor Knott will be nominated over Jones by 100 majority when the final ballot will be taken in the Louisville convention May 16th.

BOLIVIER JONES carried the day here Saturday, but it will Knott be many days until another man will look down upon a whole congress of wrecked candidates.

TEN carp aggregating 112 pounds, were seized from Withrow's pond in Woodford county, at one haul with a seine. The fish were taken to Anchorage for Government fish culture.

YESTERDAY was only a fair court-day. The farmers were generally busy planting corn, and the crowd was only a moderate one. Very little stock on the market, but lots of machinery, buggies, &c.

The City of Lexington has been sued by the Commonwealth of Kentucky, for $90,000 in fine collected and appropriated to the city without authority. Thos. E. Hallam, of Covington, will prosecute.

At an election of officers at the Christian Church Sunday, W. A. Parker, J. W. Lovely and W. H. Lucas were elected elders, and H. C. Hatcher, J. L. Taylor, Thos. H. Clay and Woodson Morgan, deacons.

Before spending all of your money at the circus to-morrow, call at at Hinton's flower store and make a few selections from his handsome stock of flowers and greenhouse plants. Located at Box 8, tin store, just below Baptist church.

H. T. DERICKSON, ex-Representative from Powell county, died suddenly while attending court at Campton, Wolo county, last week. Mr. Derickson will be remembered as the "gentleman from Powell" at the Appellate convention at Owensville several years ago. A big drunk would up his career.

The wife of John Cary, a sonanballist, arose in her sleep Saturday night at Falmouth, and threw a handkerchief into the fire which contained $800 of her husband's money, fainting and fell into the fire and severely burned herself. The money was all destroyed. Cary was a saloon keeper and local option had just shut him out.

There are two little twin boys in this city named Richardson, that are so much alike it is hard to tell 'tother from which.' One of them joined the Baptist church here a few days ago, and a rumor on the town says that he gave the other one a dime to be baptized in his place. We give this as a current rumor on the town; so if it proves not to be true, correction will not be necessary.

The trial of Phil. B. Thompson, Jr. has been set for to-day, but the Attorney for the Commonwealth has announced that he will probably not be ready to proceed. It is said that the army of counsel for the defense will be such as has never appeared in a court in Kentucky. The friends and family of Walter Davis have no hope that any judicial punishment will be meted out to Thompson. Such a thing would be quite impossible in Kentucky they say, but they want a trial in order to vindicate the memory of the dead and the living.

Democratic Convention.

At the Democratic Convention for nomination of candidates for State officers Saturday, Col. E. F. Clay, Chairman of the County Executive Committee called the house to order and announced the object of the meeting.

Col. E. F. Clay was chosen permanent chairman and Jos. M. Jones and Bruce Champ Secretaries.

On motion, the following resolution was passed:

Resolved, That the delegates to be appointed are hereby instructed to vote for Gen. S. B. Buckner as first, and Thos. L. Jones as second choice for Governor, and to use their best endeavors to carry out said instructions.

Resolutions were also passed instructing the delegates to vote for Van B. Young for Lieutenant Governor; Joe Desha Pickett for Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Col. Edgar second; Watt Hardin, Attorney General; Fayette Hewitt, Auditor, Thos. H. Corbett for Register of Land Office, with Ralph Stedden second, and Dick Tate for Treasurer.

A resolution announced by Hon. C. S. Offutt, thanking Col. Clay for his impartiality as chairman, was passed by acclamation.

The following list of delegates were appointed: W. M. Gay, Z. M. Layson, H. C. Carpenter, John Current, W. F. Horton, Jno. W. Thomas, S. S. Bell, Jno. W. Boulden, E. G. Bedford, Robt. A. Hopkins, E. F. Clay, J. W. Ferguson, Hugh Henry, Horace Miller, Russell Mann, J. M. McElroy, D. E. Turner, J. H. Bradshaw, E. M. Dickson, C. M. Clay, R. G. Stoner, Gano Hill, R. H. Hanson, J. M. Hughes.

A resolution was adopted adding Judge Turner, Henry Spears, H. C. Buckner, J. R. Rogers, W. F. Champ, committeemen for the selection of delegates, to the county delegation.

In compliance with my duty as Chairman, I hereby declare the above proceedings the true sense and action of the meeting.

E. F. CLAY, Chairman.

JOE JONES, BEUCE CHAMP, Secretaries.

Louisville hears Cincinnati, and later Jones because he lives so close to it. Before Jacob was announced as a candidate, Louisville was in full sympathy with Knott. Buckner having drawn the most of his strength from Knott, and Owsley too, being somewhat on his territory, it is but fair to presume that when those three candidates are dropped or withdrawn, that at least three-fourths of their combined strength will go to Knott, who will be the winner over Jones by at least 100 majority.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

JUDGE T. F. HARGIS, CANDIDATE FOR
Judge of Court of Appeals.
DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE,
CHARLES S. OFFUTT.

It's so now in Kentucky that a lawyer thinks he is forever disgraced and that his record as a professional man will be sneered at if he fails to acquit the most atrocious criminals whom they are employed to defend. Therefore, they enter into their work with a vim, and leave nothing undone, often resorting to the basest measures and deserting the high and honorable standard of the profession. They even go so far as to presume on the ignorance and intelligence of the public by their mingling at the various leading points for the purpose of manufacturing public opinion and toning down the truly indignant sentiment of an outraged public. This manner of toying with public sentiment reverts to the dishonor of the profession and embitters the public ten-fold against the prisoners in the case. Shrewd lawyers—lawyers with good common sense backed up with honor, seldom presume upon their ability to turn the tide of public opinion by discussing noted criminal points with street loafers, but keep their heads closed and use honorable means in preventing their clients from being imposed upon and acting as their safe-guards in preventing the infliction of an unjust and illegal punishment. That is all that an honorable lawyer ought to promise his client, and that is all that a reasonable client ought to expect from his guardian of legal lore. It is too much to ask that a high-toned and honorable lawyer should warp his natural life-paths into the crooked ruts and filthy slums to which many descend in their over-enthusiastic efforts to gain their points and turn loose criminals which they well know ought to be hanged with hemp. For this reason, many high professionals in the East positively refuse to defend noted criminals for either love or money.

REMEMBER, IT IS FREE TO ALL.

ATTENTION, HORSEMEN!

We call the attention of the farmers and breeders of horse stock, that I have at my place, horses for beauty and symmetry as well as for trotting purposes. It is a careful inspection is due to the size and offspring of any horse, I would then most respectfully call attention to Caliban and his offspring—some ten or twelve of which can now be seen at my stable. Caliban will be permitted to serve a limited number of mares the coming season, offered by first-class mares, (no others need apply), at $25 to insure. Caliban has a record of 2:34, and in the opinion of such horsemen as Dr. L. Herr, he could have trotted as well or better than 2:30 on the day which he has record. Two of Caliban's yearling colts showed better than a four minute gait on my indifferent track last Spring.

I will call the attention to the fact that Mambrino Chief, with the Pilot and Clay cross, has produced some of our most noted horses. I breed for speed as well as sixteen-hands high horses, high style and fancy.

Caliban is the sire of Cyclone and Coaster, both with records better than 2:27.

STANDARD BEARER.

This celebrated horse will make the season of '83, at my stable, three miles from Millersburg and six miles from Paris, on the Jackstown pike, at Ten Dollars The Season, or Fifteen Dollars to insure a living colt.

STANDARD BEARER is a bay, foaled 1867; fifteen hands and three inches high; by Volunteer; dam, by Roe's Arabian; sire of Volunteer, by Kentucky's Hambletonian.

Like all the sons of Volunteer, Standard Bearer is proving himself a fine stock horse; his produce being large, finely formed, with superb action.

Also, my three-years-old young jack,

Lord Wellington,

15 hands and 1 inch high, good bone and length, will stand at Ten Dollars to insure a living colt.

Money due in both cases when the colt comes or mare parted with—a lien remaining on the colts until season money is paid.
